Our lawyers just sent a criminal referral to AG Barr regarding at least 3,062 instances of voter fraud. We expect that number to grow substantially. Thousands of individuals have been identified who appear to have violated the law by casting ballots after they moved from NV.

Nevada GOP isn't a law enforcement agency. Nobody "criminally referred" anything. Someone wrote a letter about change of residency data. You still haven't filed the lawsuit you had a press conference about. Where is it? Where's evidence of voter fraud? All day, still nothing.

Letter to the Clark County, NV District Attorney alleging voter fraud by people who were not legal residents of Clark County.

500 S. Grand Central Parkway
Las Vegas, NV 89106
Anne Meier@clarkcountynv.com

Re: Mail Ballots Received from Thousands of Ineligible Voters

Dear Ms. Meier

This firm, in conjunction with Harvey & Binnall, PLLC represents Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. As you know we have been concerned for months about improper ballots being cast in the 2020 general election. Yet Joseph Gloria has yet to take any reasonably basic and fundamental steps to ensure that mail ballots are free from fraud and abuse. His inaction has had and continues to have material adverse consequences on our election security. We have confirmed that thousands of votes have been cast improperly. Indeed, we have already identified 3,462 voters who moved from Nevada before the election but still cast ballots in this election. We have verified this by cross-referencing the list of general election voters with publicly available change of address records. For instance, demographic experts agree that the National Change of Address database only captures about one-third of relocations. Consequently, this number will likely grow by 6,000 voters, at a minimum. As you know, voter fraud is a serious crime, under federal and state law and these fraudulent ballots call into question the legitimacy and integrity of the entire Nevada general election. This is a direct result of Mr. Gloria's lax procedures for authenticating voter identity and his negligent maintenance of voter rolls.

Had Mr. Gloria's office used proper and generally accepted procedures to authenticate these ballots and clean the voter rolls on the front end, then these illegal votes would never have penetrated into the voter pool, diluting the votes of honest Nevadans. That is why it is imperative that he take immediate action to clean the voter rolls and purge them of all ineligible voters, including those that have moved from Nevada and those that have died. Moreover, he should immediately cease authenticating and separating mail ballots until the rolls are cured and take all possible measures to cull improper ballots from the 2020 general election voter pool.

For months I've called on @Jack & @Twitter to remove this Islamic radical from this platform. And nothing has been done. He denies his people the right to be on twitter while Jack allows him to spew homophobia, antisemitism, sexism and violence.

5. My main advice is to continue this struggle & better organize anti-occupation organizations, cooperation & expand the areas of #Jihad inside Palestinian territories. Everyone must help the Palestinian fighters. We will proudly do everything in our power on this path

Amen. It's scary Richard. America needs help and truth. And we need it fast before Dems steal the election. I'm scared.

It was filed last night. I don't see your tweet highlighting the lawsuit - only you complaining about not seeing it earlier.

Hours ago, @RichardGrenell and @MSchlapp told the press in Las Vegas that the Trump campaign was filing a lawsuit today in federal court in Nevada to block "illegal votes."

This can be legal. Damaged ballots can be recreated under supervision in some places.

I don't know this situation, though.

Dave Rubin @Pub nReport

I'm retweeting this and genuinely asking for people to explain what is happening here if not a woman filling out ballots.

This is not misinformation or conjecture. I'm asking a question and will gladly show this thread.

68 million people voted for Trump largely b/c they despise the elite & institutions. Those same elites/institutions are screaming at them for having questions about a very confusing electoral process.

Instead of screaming/dismissing them, hear them out and engage in good faith

Agree. We take our concerns to the courts. This is our right. We don't riot or shut down the system or call for sanctuary cities that ignore the rule of law.

We will always follow the rule of law.

Hugh Hewitt ✓ @hughhewitt

Deeply opposed to idea of asking state legislatures to get involved in replacing electors. That & as radical as packing the Supreme Court. Both appear "constitutional," but both deeply, profoundly destructive of rule of law. Any provable fraud can be addressed through courts.

1) He says there are 100K outstanding mail-in ballots in PA which could be challenged.

2) He says there are 100K provisional ballots that appear to skew Trump.

We warned what could happen as the state was not prepared to conduct a universal mail election.

These are just some of the instances of potential fraud that we were made aware of, and we know there are many more we do not know about.

We also have accounts from far too many voters of receiving ballots for people that no longer live in their home

Clark County put the integrity of NV's results at risk when they lowered the signature matching standard to almost nothing while mailing voters on the uncertain rolls Nevadans deserve to have faith in the results. Unfortunately, Clark County did nothing to ensure they could.

MSNBC has this Democrat activist posing as a reporter.

He literally is gleeful when Democrats win - he posts cheerleading content for multiple days. And the Democrat/reporter cabal in DC echos their team.

Seriously, why does @MSNBC allow this activism? @NBCNews

He said if we hand counted it would take too long.

My concern: Democrats worked hard to mail out many ballots to old and unchecked lists and then ballot harvested - the lowering of factory settings to catch signature problems helps the massive mailing strategy.

This will take time to dig into.

Transparency is NOT political.

The excuse you and other Democrats used to say Russia stole the 2016 election is "grasping at straws".

I've never once "called for people to resist." I have criticized Trump. And actually wrote a column in early 2019 saying that I was contributing to our toxic debate and we needed more grace and I'm finishing a book manuscript on that now. So there is no whiplash.

Why didn't @davidspunt say that the DOJ official who resigned over launch of voter fraud investigation was the same official accused of targeting conservatives with Lois Lerner at the IRS during Obama Administration?!

Seems relevant.

Pilger is responsible for prosecuting illegal campaign finance coordination efforts. In early 2015, the DOJ announced it planned to "aggressively pursue coordination offenses at every appropriate opportunity" in anticipation of the 2016 elections. Therefore, these cases, if they materialize, will fall under Pilger's jurisdiction.

Profession Attorney

In February 2015, Tyler Harber, a Republican campaign manager and political consultant, pleaded guilty "to one count of coordinated federal election contributions and one count of making false statements to the FBI." This case, which was prosecuted by Pilger and Chief Mark D. Lytle of the Financial Crimes and Public Corruption Unit of the Eastern District of Virginia, was the first criminal prosecution for campaign finance coordination between political committees in the United States.¹⁴

IRS targeting involvement

The House Oversight Committee learned about a database Lois Lerner then head of the tax-exempt organizations division of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), shared with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) after interviewing Pilger and reviewing emails between him and Lerner. The discovery of this database eventually launched a Congressional investigation into whether the IRS was improperly targeting conservative organizations applying for a tax-exempt status.

Pilger and Lerner discussed potentially prosecuting tax-exempt organizations, specifically 501(c)(3) groups involved in political activity. Weeks before the 2010 midterm elections, emails between the two explicitly mentioned the expansive database. Lerner asked Pilger what format for the database would be preferable to the FBI. Pilger, in turn, relayed this inquiry to the FBI and responded to Lerner: "Thanks Lois - FBI says Raw format is best because they can put it into their systems like excel."¹⁵

In 2013, Pilger and Lerner were again colluding about targeting tax-exempt groups. In an email from Lerner to Nikole Flax, former chief of staff to IRS commissioner Steven Miller, Lerner wrote:¹⁶

I got a call today from Richard Pilger Director Elections Crimes Branch at DOJ.

Pilger and Lerner discussed powerfully prosecuting tax-exempt organizations, specifically 501(c)(4) groups involved in political activity. Pilger, in turn, relayed this inquiry to the FBI and responded to Lerner: "Thanks Lois - FBI says Raw format is best because they can put it into their systems like excel."¹⁶

In 2013, Pilger and Lerner were again colluding about targeting tax-exempt groups. In an email from Lerner to Nikole Flax, former chief of staff to IRS commissioner Steven Miller, Lerner wrote:¹⁷

I got a call today from Richard Pilger Director Elections Crimes Branch at DOJ. I know him from contacts from my days there. He wanted to know who at IRS the DOJ folks are going to talk to about Sen. Whitehouse's idea of the hearing that Stop pretending like the states have called and certified the election.

You may be right in the coming days or weeks but you are not right right now.

Biden is ahead of Trump by 45,000 in Pennsylvania. In 2000, the gap between Bush and Gore in Florida was 537. There is NO scenario by which this result gets overturned. Don't overreact to Barr's empty memo. Stay confident. Be patient. Keep calm. He is leaving.

The national media has all the proof they need on massive ballot irregularities. We have names of invalid voters, we have tomb stones and death certificates, we have names and addresses of out of state voters. Thousands.

If they won't cover this scandal stop watching them.

Honestly I can't get over the fact that governors are now telling us how many family members we can have in our own homes and a lot of people are happy to go along with it. It's insane. I don't think we even appreciate how insane it is. Words can't describe it.

Now that @PeteButtigieg's minions have backed down I bet he thinks that a GOP controlled senate will give him a pass. That shouldn't happen. He shouldn't be allowed anywhere near a position of power in Washington. Reminder: they were going to target @senatemajldr's donors.

Take note, @SenateGOP @PeteButtigieg Team has launched an initiative to punish Trump Administration officials. We shouldn't allow Mayor Pete or anyone on his team within a mile of any position of power in government. @HariSevugan

What a ridiculous message. Obama had 8 years, including 2 with full control of Congress. He sent our jobs to China, left our healthcare system in disarray, our foreign policy in shambles & our people divided. Instead of blaming Trump, Obama should consider what led to 2016.

I'm Not Yet Ready to Abandon the Possibility of America

I am calling for an investigation into @GavinNewsom's election interference. This is a scandal. It's being ignored by the media. It's happening everyday! Here are two ballots mailed to two people who have been dead for more than 10 years!

Number of 2020 votes in Nevada: 1.434 million.

A dramatic increase of 27.46%.

It's amazing how often Grenell can be wrong. Turnout in NV was NOT "staggeringly more" than 2016. There were more than a quarter of a million new active voters.
2016 turnout: 77 percent.

This county is completely controlled by the Democrats. They threw out a whole race because they didn't have confidence in their own system.

Don't tell the people of Nevada you are sure the fraud is limited when Joe Gloria said he didn't have the resources to investigate fraud.

Clark has 900K+ ballots. Issues are with 936 or so. One seat (with 15.3K votes and 100+ Issues) came down to 10 votes so the error of 100+ votes is larger than the 10 vote margin. Hence that race is out but it is too small to matter in the POTUS race.

Megan wants Biden to win. So she pretends that 936 discrepancies are all there is.

But Joe G.oria couldn't even say that so why is Megan Messerly so sure that's all there is?

Because she's afraid there are more

This is not what happened. Clark County elections officials, in preparing for the final canvass of results, identified 936 discrepancies, including 139 in the Commission District C race. The Nevada secretary of state's office is responsible for investigating allegations of fraud.

One of the biggest opponents of bringing US troops home was Mattis. He fought hard for the status quo.
@realDonaldTrump ran and won the election partly by committing to this policy. Why would Mattis take the job & then undermine the policy? Because it's what DC types do.

The opposite is also true (especially from young reporters): media outlets no longer demand that reporters reach out for comment from the very people they are writing about. The new normal is to RT, repeat and recycle stories from colleagues without checking the original source.

Yashar Ali ✓ @yashar

don't think people realize how often elected officials and their press staff simply refuse to answer questions. Not even a "decline to comment." Reporters will email, text, and call members of congress over and over and never hear back...

Curtis, not that @biannago dryga needs my help, but she's truly an outstanding journalist. And her post & statement about Blinken was accurate. You'd have to agree some of Trump's appointees, @RichardGrenell in particular, were singularly unqualified for their positions.

Yellen. Kerry. Blinken. Liberals and establishment Republicans probably take no little comfort in this trip down nostalgia lane. The clock really has turned back to circa 2014.

What they forget is that 2014 contained in it all the elements that made 2015-16 inevitable.

The "objective" media blew out their credibility years ago. That's why non-liberals began using the internet for alternative sources of news; it's why they began using Facebook's news feed, which supposedly allowed a diversity of news and information choices.

If Facebook decides to turn over its news feed algorithm to the very legacy media sources people went to Facebook to avoid, they deserve everything coming for them. The fact that Facebook has outsourced its "credibility ratings" to partisan groups of the Left is pathetic

The NYT spent years telling us there were secret Russian deals.

Now that you've helped weaponize the IRS on Americans by encouraging the theft of personal information, you should admit that there's no hidden Russian money.

The weaponization of government by DC bureaucrats will continue until people are prosecuted for breaking the law.

I found someone leaking and lying about classified information while at DNI. He was turned over to FBI. But I don't see that charges have been filed against him.

Who leaked Trump's tax returns to The New York Times?

This was a criminal act & highly reckless. It risks lethal retaliation & a new round of regional conflict. Iranian leaders would be wise to wait for the return of responsible American leadership on the global stage & to resist the urge to respond against perceived culprits.

Hear it from Reg. Joe Gloria himself!

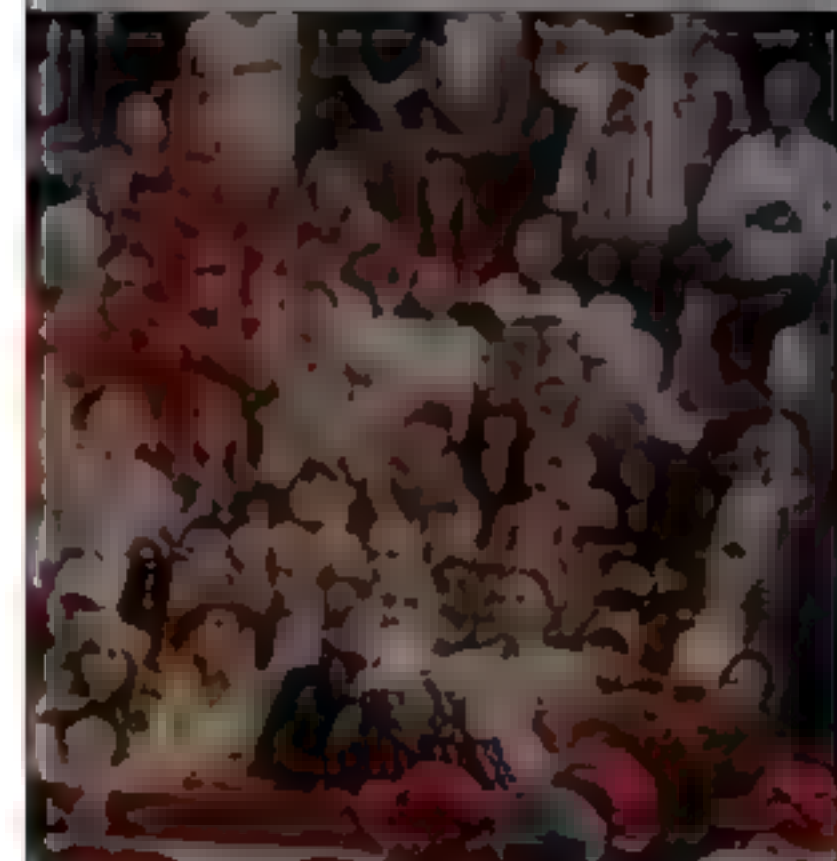

He admitted to hundreds of "voter discrepancies" in the race for County Commission District C.

If the integrity of the process is in question by the person who ran the election, how can they certify the results?

The all Dem Clark County Commission voted 7-0 to redo a local race because Reg Gloria said 139 discrepancies "very well could represent a discrepancy that could affect the outcome of the election". How on Tuesday can they just vote to certify a 10 vote win for the Dem candidate?

Why didn't @davidspunt say that the DOJ official who resigned over launch of voter fraud investigation was the same official accused of targeting conservatives with Lois Lerner at the IRS during Obama Administration?!

Seems relevant.

Pilger is responsible for prosecuting major campaign finance coordination efforts. In early 2015, the DOJ announced it planned to aggressively pursue coordination offenses at every appropriate opportunity." In anticipation of the 2016 elections, therefore, these cases, if they materialize, will fall under Pilger's jurisdiction.

Profession Attorney

In February 2015, Tyler Harber, a Republican campaign manager and political consultant, pleaded guilty "to one count of coordinated federal election contributions and one count of making false statements to the FBI." This case, which was prosecuted by Pilger and Chief Mark D. Lytle of the Financial Crimes and Public Corruption Unit of the Eastern District of Virginia, was the first criminal prosecution for campaign finance coordination between political committees in the United States.

IRS targeting involvement

The House Oversight Committee learned about a database Lois Lerner then head of the tax-exempt organizations division of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) shared with the Internal Security Division (ISD) of the FBI after interviewing Pilger and reviewing emails between him and Lerner. The discovery of this database eventually launched a Congressional investigation into whether the IRS was improperly targeting conservative organizations applying for a tax-exempt status.

Pilger and Lerner discussed potentially prosecuting tax-exempt organizations, specifically 501(c)(4) groups, involved in political activity. Weeks before the 2010 midterm elections, emails between the two explicitly mentioned the expansive database. Lerner asked Pilger what format for the database would be preferable to the FBI. Pilger in turn relayed this inquiry to the FBI and responded to Lerner, "Thanks, Lois - FBI says Raw format is best."

We knew China under reported. Just like Trump wanted to under report by slowing tests.

But where does it say the leak happened before election day? And why would it matter? Xenophobia much?

Why didn't those stellar "news" agencies like Fox OAN or Breitbart get these leaks?

Trump's lawyer is arguing that they gave Biden's camp access to the databases they used and methodology. Biden camp didn't identify any errors.

Basically, the lawyers have the data. The public doesn't, and so we don't know if it's accurate.

Victor Joecks @VictorJoecks

yep, argument of Biden's defense is that court should reject, because Trump's team identified universes of suspicious voters, but not specific individuals.

Which may be a fine legal argument, but it doesn't get to the (separate) questi..

. @McFaul was just blaming the people of California for not doing the "collective good" as he calls it. He chastised Californians for not following @GavinNewsom's directives.

But we need to use facts and science. Not fear and shame.

Fear mongering isn't new. From 2018:

"They assembled what looks like giant, brown camping tent in their emergency room parking lot. Several hospitals in CA are treating flu patients in 'surge tents'"

What is new is the destruction of human rights.

You get a paycheck while working from home.

Millions of people don't get paid if they don't work. Their economic and mental health should not be ignored.

California politicians are overreacting. And you give them support.

Michael McFaul ✓ @McFaul

The facts & science where I live are clear. And so our County Health Officer has rightly issued new restrictions. My point is that it didn't have to be this way. Those who ignored science and facts propagated myths about not needing to wear masks & the like are to blame. twitter.com/RichardGrenell.

You also don't know me at all and have no idea about my support for my working class family and friends.

Joe Biden defeated AGAIN by the Teleprompter.

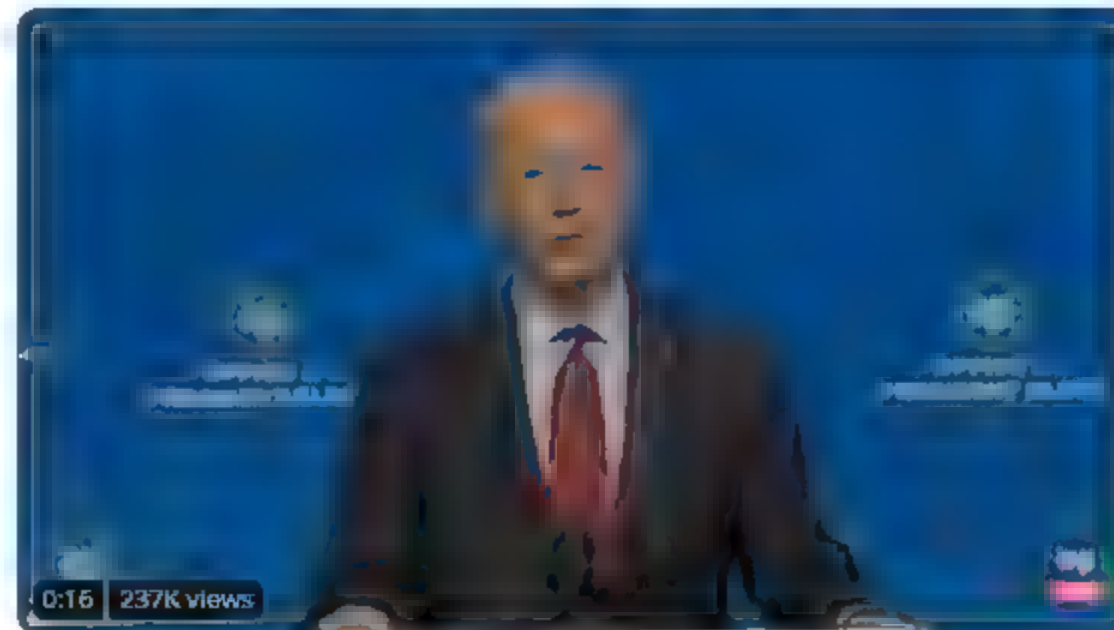

"For Secretary of Health and Education Services, I nominate Xavier Bacheria."

Joe Biden is a mess.

It's Health and Human Services.

And it's Xavier Becerra.

Biden doesn't know the the cabinet office or name of the official.

Death count failed to work. Then number of cases proved to be irrelevant. Now they move onto available ICU beds in what's typically the busy time of year. ICU are typically at or near capacity. That's not moving goal posts, that's changing the game

I've come down with COVID

The only thing that's running through my fevered mind is this

I hate the Chinese Govt

Their lying. Their cruelty. Their indifference to what they've unleashed onto the world

I want the bastards to pay

I want them crushed without mercy

We used to have a Hollywood crowd that

Amazon is hiring at breakneck speed as small business crumbles across America. As a result they need to expand their indoor cafeterias. They look very similar to indoor dining 🤔. So we don't shut an industry down for safety we just transfer it to Amazon. Makes sense.

We know Chinese diplomats have pressured federal, state & local officials.

So the media should ask what was discussed, or asked for in this 2019 meeting.

the US intel community unanimously agreed that Covid 19 started in China - and that China worked to hide the danger.

The problem is that you ALWAYS come up with a reason to not criticize Democrats.

Everyone sees the bias. Your colleagues in DC just like your bias so they RT and repeat you. You all have helped create the credibility crisis by pretending you aren't biased.

I don't think I've ever seen a bigger bunch of thin-skinned babies than reporters/Dems whining about this O'Malley Dillon story. They would wet their beds if they ever had to endure even an ounce of the scrutiny and negative coverage that the Trump Administration gets.

Fascinating insight into the mind of an elitist. In a previous message she let me know she has enough money to live for years without working.

This is not hate mail. Use this crisis to reflect on your lifestyle, your strengths and weaknesses, and why you feel compelled to be in the limelight. Scale back, simplify and find meaningful goals.

Your arguments don't hold water because there's nothing essential about a restaurant. Grocery stores and farmers are essential. Restaurants are wonderful and a great luxury but not essential. The problem is masses on reliant on them for employment. This is a systematic problem, not a political one. We need to train more to do

Pete says "jobs, climate and equity" will be his focus if he is confirmed.

Half his job is running the FAA. So if the climate is his second priority, will he attack air travel?

He is signaling he wants to make Transportation a partisan issue.

DC reporters wake up!

Pete Buttigieg ✓ @PeteButtigieg

We will make sure that creating jobs, tackling the climate crisis, and centering equity are at the heart of our transportation and infrastructure vision.

The purpose of the Holocaust Memorial Council is to ensure that the Holocaust is never forgotten and that the lessons of the Holocaust are passed on to future generations. The Council is composed of members from various backgrounds and is dedicated to promoting tolerance and understanding.

Richard Grenell, the US Ambassador to Germany, has been named to the Council. Grenell is a member of the far-right and has been criticized for his views on the Holocaust. The Council is a platform for dialogue and understanding, and Grenell's appointment is a disservice to the Council's mission.

Remember when @RichardGrenell stood shoulder-to-shoulder with the Jewish community in Germany when their own government told them not to wear their kippot?

Not only did Grenell voice his support for German Jews, he wore a kippah in solidarity.

To those who havechutzpah to question @RichardGrenell appointment to Holocaust Memorial, I refer them to this ... in 2019, as Amb. to Berlin, he donned a bullet-proof vest & a kippah, to show public solidarity with German Jewish community. That's the kind of leader & man he is!

this isn't journalism. This is promoting gossip from your reporter friends.

"chatter"?! Journalism used to have sources that were checked for accuracy by editors.

Now we have Sam Stein tweeting what his colleagues want to happen.

Sam Stein @samstein

Some chatter among Dem legal/oversight types about hauling Stone and Manafort back to testify because they can't take the 5th and could be charged with perjury if they lie. All of which will run right into Biden's stated preference of not looking back.

I've just talked to a friend who is the Secret Service Agent in presidential detail about this story in WaPo.

Me: Is this story true?

Agent: And this is why people despise journalists.

Me: Not true?

Agent: This is slander. And totally preposterous.

This CBS tweet lacks serious facts:

1 There's evidence that these are not "residents" since they're in the U.S. Post Office change-of-address registry.

2 The judge in the case is Stacey Abrams' sister.

3 These voters could cast provisional ballots anyway.

But good for clicks!

CBS Evening News ✓ @CBSEveningNews

A federal judge in Georgia blocked two counties from removing more than 4,000 registered voters from their rolls, which would've prevented those residents from casting a regular ballot in the state's pivotal January 5 runoff elections.

Why hasn't the media insisted on knowing the details about the ballots under the table?

At the very least, the law was violated by kicking observers out before the suitcases were unloaded.

Ann Ravel needs to stop trying to take away our Constitutional right to recall a terrible Governor. We are following the law.

Attacking the homes and scaring the young children of politicians is a tactic that is over the line. Accosting political opponents as they enjoy family time at restaurants or at airports only makes hostilities grow. Pray for America today, please

The Democrats controlled the House, the Senate and the White House for the first two years of Barack Obama's presidency.

They overreached then - and their party is even more Left today.

Rest up and get ready to fight back.

Fact: Clark County officials threw out a County Commissioners' race (158k votes) because they didn't trust the process.

Then when the Trump campaign filed suit to throw out the whole ballot (not just one race) they flipped their decision and certified the race. @MajorCBS

Fact: a Nevada judge ruled the Trump team should be able to inspect the voting machines. But when we showed up to inspect the machines, Clark County officials gave our team a tour of the facility.

There was no inspection done.

The judge didn't care.

Fact: 42,000 people voted twice in Nevada.

The judge asked for more proof to this claim, but the ballots and envelope openings with signatures are controlled by Clark County officials (Harry Reid allies) and they refuse to allow an inspection.

The judge didn't care.

I live in Clark County. Our entire election process has been suspect since @GovSisolak ushered in AB4 under the cover of darkness, bringing ballot harvesting & mailing millions of unrequested ballots to unpurged voter rolls.

Those who participate in this insurrectionist violence must be held accountable. For those who've spent the past few years fomenting violence, the accountability should be particularly ruthless.

So I look forward to your peaceful surrender, @RichardGrenell

This is unacceptable. And unAmerican.

And, most correctly, the ad is wrong. He didn't threaten vague legal consequences. He states people were sad and angry and that they might not vote. None of those are threats.

Hard to imagine that this petty little man with a very fragile ego used to be the US ambassador to #Germany. Not hard to imagine the Germans celebrated the day he finally left the country by dancing in the streets. Tschüss!

The DC media is so biased. They want to hide the truth from the American people.

Steve Guest @SteveGuest · Aug 14, 2020

MSNBC, CNN mostly ignore Trump's major Israel-UAE peace deal during prime time

"No mention of the major Middle East peace deal on MSNBC's "All in with Chris Hayes," ..., "The Rachel Maddow Show" and "The Last Word with Lawrence O'Donnell."

People are becoming so "open minded" that down the road they will support pedophilia as people "just loving children". You think I'm kidding. I'm not. It's the direction this insanity is headed. You can "ok boomer" me all you want but this is where we will veer unless we change.

Recklessly throwing ballots in the mail means illegal votes come back.

Non-residents and dead people have voted. Democrats planned this. It's an attack on our Democracy.

We must only count LEGAL votes.

Juan Andres Caro @realJuanCaro

Biden voters are much more motivated than I originally imagined. William here came back from the grave to support his candidate @Wizard Predicts Manu, when do you flip to being skeptical of Biden and the Democrats? Stop spinning for them.

Clyburn is walking back impeachment. Did they overreach out of the gate? How will their base react - they want impeachment now.

Do journalism.

Manu Raju ✓ @mkraju

Clyburn says Dems may wait possibly after first 100 days of Biden's presidency to send article over to Senate in order to let Senate focus on Biden's agenda. "Yes I do have concerns so does Nancy Pelosi," Clyburn says on @CNNSotu of trial impacting early days of Biden's term

Imagine if, in the midst of the massive BLM riots this summer, the entire tech infrastructure had deplatformed Facebook because some had used that app to plan events devolving into violence. People would rightly have called that an insane act of ideological fascism.

Yet today, media will celebrate Amazon doing exactly that to Parler. The tech bros are making a horrible and dangerous moment significantly more horrible and dangerous. There are no consistent standards being applied. There is reactionary deplatforming in the name of one side.

Private companies are by law free to do what they like. That's why I have always said that the solution to the censorship of Twitter is alternatives which is what Parler was attempting to be, whatever its flaws.

Silencing a significant number of voters and erasing history is no way to unite us. It only further divides. Big tech & social media platforms want to act like media orgs but don't want to be held accountable with the rest of media. Speech should be free whether you agree or not.

German journalist living in the US (with no US voting rights) received multiple ballots in the mail

This is outrageous.

Das von #Trump beklagte Chaos bei Zustellung #Briefwahlunterlagen gibt es. Ich darf hier nicht wählen. An meine #Washingtoner Adresse kamen aber 3 #Wahlzettel für vor 5 Jahren verzugene VORMeterin. In #PuertoRico lebende Vermieterin und deren verstorbener Mann #USwahl2020

@KFLE does hit pieces when someone has a 10 year old tweet

He's literally the Leader of Cancé. Culture. So why isn't he doing Journal sm on @JoeBiden's corruption scanda ?

Sohrab Ahmari @SohrabAhmari · Oct 17, 2020
More solidly sourced and corroborated with hard evidence than the whole mountain of "collusion" stories of the past four years – and yet most of our colleagues at other journalistic institutions are either studiously ignoring or trying to discredit us. Shame Twitter has been throttling my reach and I'm getting 1/3 the amount of RTs I would normally get. Instagram is doing the same & worse for the last few days.

And @KaminskiMK's Politico pushed fake news right before the 2020 election from 50 "former intelligence officials" who said Hunter Biden's laptop was "Russian disinformation".

Nothing was done by twitter and @politico never apologized.

David 1.4% Marcus @BlueBoxDave

Twitter suppressed a story from the newspaper I write for, founded by Alexander Hamilton, which was 100% accurate. Meanwhile false claims that it was Russian disinformation flowed freely on their platform. That's not an opinion, it's a fact.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT ON BIG-TECH CENSORSHIP

@GreeksForTrump

Serbs for Trump 2020 Official Statement on Big Tech Censorship

As a coalition partner of President Donald W. Trump's re-election campaign, we would like to inform our members and followers that Facebook has blocked our page for 30 days. Free speech, as one of the holy grails of our American Democratic Republic is dying in the darkness of the Big Tech oligarchs, who have imposed a brutal communist sovereignty over the sitting President of the United States, his allies and supporters, including our movement. For those of us who have experienced this type of purge elsewhere in the world, this unprecedented assault on our civil liberties and freedoms is a sobering, twilight zone reminder that the regressive Left has decided to walk an inrationally dangerous path that will tear this nation apart, while midwifing more violence and extremism. A target has been placed on the backs of 75 million Americans, and if We the People do not reign in their "drunk on power" trip, this will be the final undoing of us all, no matter what political landscape we belong to.

Take a bow, Ric.

The thing is that thus far, Trump and his R...ing to even remotely substantiate the no... in this regard have been more a publicit...nge; the president's political fixers, includ... Corey Lewandowski and American Cons... and former ambassador Ric Grenell, hav... holding press conferences alleging ramp...es of it. (Grenell presented an elderly blu...d her ballot was stolen; Clark County offi...et with the woman, given her the chance...lection, and that she declined.)

David Charns @davdcharns · 6 Std.

I know about Jill Stokke since I interviewed her. I believe her ballot was stolen. The state is investigating, but as the registrar said, they offered her a chance to re-vote. As for calls for reporters to "go find evidence" in that news conference, we found nothing widespread.

CNN Is non stop scaring people about Covid.

They never give the percentage of people who get it and recover quickly. It's politics for them

It's not journalism. It's activism

Interesting to note shares are dropping pretty sharply amid the Trump ban and the fallout, which includes many Trump followers cancelling their accounts. Maybe thinks this is the best way to sell to . Otherwise its a lousy biz decision

They are griefful we are vulnerable and scared of our voice being suppressed.

They think we are the people in old 1950's photos angrily shouting at black school children

We are not people to them

We are symbols of what they fear morally driven to remove from the world

The most powerful people who influence technology see us the same way

We aren't customers.

We aren't users.

We aren't people with real lives and families and businesses

We are a problem to be solved and they've been trying to figure out how for years and finally can do it.

The reason free market ideals no longer work is because the market is controlled by fewer and fewer people who dominate all options

And those people are ideologically driven to eradicate from society all sources of hate

It's a religious crusade

And we are the target

18 508 3,2 Tsd

Chad Felix Greene @chadfelixg 9 Jan

We cannot reason with them

They see our pleas for fairness like you would imagine a segregationist doing so

They believe believe that once we are gone the internet and therefore society will be cleansed, free, peaceful, and able to heal FROM US.

Given that Merkel and López Obrador are denouncing the recent Silicon Valley censorship, it's probably time to call them white supremacists or "fascist adjacent" or whatever the lowly left-liberal slur of the day is for those who quest on the union of tech monopolies & neoliberals.

In addition to the German Chancellor & Mexican President, 2 French ministers said they were "shocked" & disturbed by the spate of Silicon Valley censorship, including against Trump, calling tech giants "the digital oligarchy" & a "threat to democracy."

Bloomberg

The German leader's stance is echoed by the French government. Junior Minister for European Union Affairs Clement Beaune said he was "shocked" to see a private company make such an important decision. "This should be decided by citizens, not by a CEO," he told Bloomberg TV on Monday. "There needs to be public regulation of big online platforms." Finance Minister Bruno Le Maire earlier said that the state should be responsible for regulations, rather than "the digital oligarchy," and called big tech "one of the threats" to democracy.

Europe is increasingly pushing back against the growing influence of big technology companies. The EU is currently in the process of setting up regulation that could give the bloc power to split up platforms if they don't comply with rules.

I'm just curious, the Internet is not a vehicle for free speech necessarily, these private companies have the right to ban whom they feel violate their TOS, how isn't it just fear from politicians that they too could lose their voice?

No, Wednesday was not like Kristallnacht, which involved the burning of nearly 300 synagogues, destruction of 7,000 Jewish businesses, deportation of 30,000 Jews to concentration camps, and hundreds of murders, all promoted and participated in by the unified German dictatorship.

"#NordStream2 will bring more than just Russian gas. Russian leverage and influence will also flow under the Baltic Sea and into Europe."
- Amb. @RichardGrenell, Feb 2019

German politicians & journalists were laughing back then.

Two years later, we all know: Ric was 100% right.

Last week, Germany's ruling parties CDU and SPD founded the „Foundation Climate- and Environmental Protection MV“ in N-E Germany

Gazprom will

- determine the CEO of the foundation
- provide more than 99% of its funding
- control its bylaws

And by this

- lead the effort to bypass US sanction under the smokescreen of being a „German public foundation“
- control German „environmental policies“ along the Baltic Sea for years to come
- Develop an unprecedented leverage and influence over Germany's political class

Beyond this, Nord Stream 2 lawyers are now able to change German Federal Agency's decisions by simply writing emails to the institutions, reversing their month-long decision making within 48 hours.

Dear Governor DeSantis:

I am writing to you today to request the removal of any Florida-held equity and stake in the following companies: Facebook, Twitter, Amazon, Apple, and Alphabet (Google).

As a taxpayer, I am concerned about the potential for conflict of interest and the loss of taxpayer money if these companies were to be sold or liquidated. I believe it is in the best interest of the state to divest itself of these companies and to ensure that any proceeds from the sale are used for the benefit of the state.

I am also concerned about the potential for these companies to be used for surveillance or other activities that could harm the state or its citizens. I believe it is in the best interest of the state to divest itself of these companies and to ensure that any proceeds from the sale are used for the benefit of the state.

The word "coup" is being repeated over and over here by top CA Democrats, who all preach the same line: to #Recall Gavin Newsom would be "overthrowing" his govt, led by Trump "extremists."

Risky line of attack, since recall is part of the CA Constitution, not an extralegal assault

After accusing veteran @repbrianmast, a double amputee, of not supporting democracy, CNN's @jaketapper -- a prominent pusher of the unhinged conspiracy theory that Trump colluded with Russia to steal the 2016 election -- accuses him of sedition.

Jake Tapper @jaketapper

You're a hero for your service and I'm grateful, as I've said before. And yes I question the commitment to democracy of anyone who spread election lies, signed onto that deranged TX AG lawsuit, and voted to commit sedition. You were not just asking questions.

#FlashbackFriday: That time @Rob_Malley went to bat for Yasser Arafat after Camp David & was even dropped by Obama for meeting with Hamas terror group!

Well, that's who Pres. #Biden is reportedly looking to appoint now as #Iran envoy. I'm sure they're jumping for joy in Tehran!

It's been a theme in Malley's career. After Israeli-Palestinian peace talks collapsed at the end of the Clinton administration, Malley, who engaged in those talks, publicly dissented from Clinton's own view that the talks failed because of the late Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat's failure to make a counter-offer. In 2008, he stopped advising the Obama presidential campaign on foreign policy after reports emerged that he had met with leaders of Hamas, an organization the U.S. and Israel consider to be terrorists.

Hey @DavidMuir, the people of California are furious with @GavinNewsom's lockdowns and vaccine rollout.

Why would @abc quote someone being positive about Newsom's lockdowns & recent policies?!

Have you done the @recallgavin2020 story?!

The Senate just voted on my constitutional point of order.

45 Senators agreed that this sham of a "trial" is unconstitutional.

That is more than will be needed to acquit and to eventually end this partisan impeachment process.

This "trial" is dead on arrival in the Senate.

Vox's @teddyschleifer says the experts have told him that California lockdowns have been successful in combatting Covid

Really?

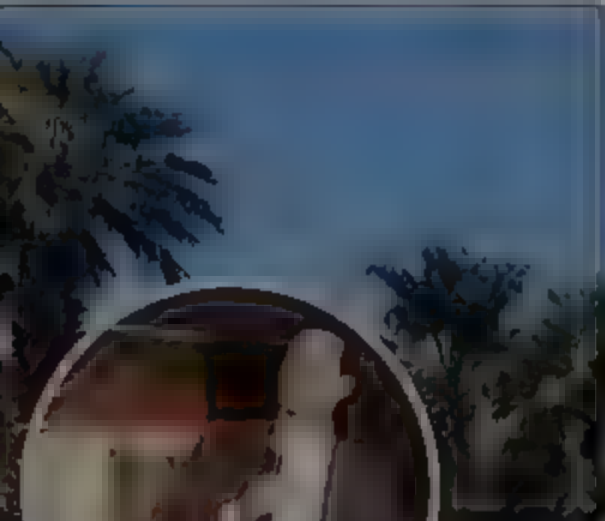

...they contacted many of major

A Newsom recall effort seemed like a fool's errand until recently. California has been one of the most aggressive states in seeking to limit the spread of the coronavirus, implementing one of the country's first stay-at-home orders. Some business leaders bristled at that crackdown, but experts say it contributed to California's relative success at mitigating the pandemic.
